

Built Environment Education©

BEE*now* is a voluntary certification program that inspires architecture schools to emphasize the teaching of sustainability, preparing graduates to substantially contribute to low-carbon building design.

Form C – Certification Submission Cover Page

Form Information

Name of School:

This submission contains all documentation for the following certification level –
Implementing, Integrating, Transforming, or Exemplifying:

This submission contains the required documentation to earn _____ points.